Outskirts Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 235 x 191 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Charlie McCain lives on his grandpa s farm with a religious and superstitious mama, who believes in ghosts; and tattling little sister, Lucy. Grandpa, who lives next door, is understanding and kind. Charlie likes to hunt and fish with Rocky, his best friend and neighbor. When Charlie finds a beautiful stray Lab with eight puppies in the barn, he is afraid to tell his mama, because she does not like dogs. She, somehow, associates dogs with the BB gun that blinded her in one eye as a child. After Lucy tattles about the Lab, Charlie convinces his mama to let him keep one puppy. Daisy is beautiful, smart and a prize hunting dog. The Adventures of Charlie, Rocky, and Daisy carry readers across the South Georgia woodlands, swamp, creek, and ponds where they hunt for deer, wild hogs, doves, raccoons, and ducks. They also ride in their hand-made boat down the Ocmulgee River with the unwanted company of little sister, Lucy, to catch the prize fish of their dreams; but their catch is not worth the trouble they face with Mrs. McCain and the law. Then Daisy s heroic act makes a happy ending. One of the most interesting stories about hunting is the Prize Buck that Charlie dreams about killing, but his dream turns into a disaster when Daisy digs out of her pen and chases the deer he and Rocky want to kill. Warden Brown fines them and the State patrol chases them. Grandpa comes to their rescue, and Mrs. McCain s clever plan settles their dispute with Warden Brown. Three other stories are the Wild Boar, a dangerous adventure in Gum Swamp; the Dove...
