Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Remarks and Reflections on Select Passages in the Book of Psalms The writing of this book has cost me many thoughts, and those who would profit by it must not think much if it cost them some; and if they cannot be contented to bestow some serious thoughts on it, it will be lost labour to read it. As happiness is the sole end of all our labours, so this book aims at nothing else -- how is man to be lamented that is in a natural carnal state, and hath no understanding of the things that belong to his everlasting peace. Jeremiah said, they have none understanding they are wise to do evil; but to do good they have no knowledge. Man in a natural state is absolutely incapable of practising holiness or enjoying happiness: If you ask, what is meant by a natural state? It is that state in which we are under the guilt of sin, and the curse of the law; are subject to the power of Satan, and influenced by evil...
