But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. (2 Peter 3:8) This is the greatest season that the church has ever known. Revelation and spiritual insight is increasing at a pace rivaling modern technology. It seems as if what has been proclaimed, prophesied and preached for the last several decades is unconditionally true, God has reserved the best for last. Keep in mind that these truths are new to us, not Him. The church is growing up, we are putting away childish things, and we are coming out of process prepared for HIS glory. The truths in this book are being released through an apostolic and prophetic mantle. Those who have ears to hear and receive will follow the cloud, others, as church history always proves will stand still and proclaim they have all truth and aren't moving....
