

Phantom Controller: Based on Events the Government and Airlines Hope You Never Know!

By Jim Epik

Beach Mountain Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. David Coffey (illustrator). 203 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book is based on real life events from a first of its kind case file from retired federal agent, Jim Epik. Phantom Controller is a must read for anyone who enjoys criminal thrillers, and certainly for anyone involved in the aviation empire at any level from private and commercial pilots to air traffic controllers to government officials, airline industry managers, and even the men and women trusting in their flights each and every day. America's air traffic control system is vulnerable to attack, still every day over a million people fly throughout the United States placing their lives on the hope that a faulty communications system will protect them. How many times have you heard of passengers being stranded on a runway for hours? I bet you, like most flyers, had no idea the problem is often caused by Phantom Controllers taking over tower to flight operations. Sound like a conspiracy theory? Look it up or ask pilots at any major airline, most of them know it is very real. News...
